

MIDWEST BIOSCENE

ASSOCIATION OF MIDWESTERN COLLEGE BIOLOGY TEACHERS Vol. 5, #3/4, Sep '79

TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL MEETING NOTES

Lodging

A list of hotels and motels in Louisville is enclosed. Please make your reservations directly with the hotel or motel.

Parking

Parking will be available in the lot just south of the Learning Resource Center (LRC on the campus map). The fee is 40¢.

Phone Contact An emergency telephone number for members at the meeting has been arranged. Call (501) 584-0181, Ext. 222. This is Campus Security.

Registration The Registration desk will be located in the Louisville Vocational Technical Institute (LV on campus map). All sessions will also be held in this building. Room assignments for the sessions will be available at registration.

Speakers

Joan Creager, our theme speaker, has long been active in the development of biology curricula. Some of you may remember her from her days at CUEBS and her work in such things as Module development.

Michael Miller, who will speak on the Ecology of the Alaska Pipeline, has been monitoring Tundra and Aquatic Ecosystems in Alaska since 1973.

Friday morning events:

Bernheim Forest contains an Arboretum, Nature Center, and Wildlife Refuge. It is located on 10,000 acres of Kentucky Knob land.

The Falls of Ohio is an area of geological interest. Fossil evidence for many marine forms that once existed in the area are imprinted in the rocks. The shoreline of an ancient ocean is marked in the rocky ledges alongside the Ohio River.

The Louisville Zoo contains a Commissary and Hospital for animals that are viewed as models of modern zoological care. The Zoo contains an impressive number of animal species.

Churchill Downs is renowned as the home of the Kentucky Derby. A museum is located on the grounds, and one will be able to view the track and grandstand area.
